

Presider: Rev. Richard N. Fragomeni, Ph.D

This Pilgrimage to Mary's House is a pilgrimage of solidarity. For Mary, too, has lost a son, but nevertheless, continues to hope in the promise of God.

Rev. Fragomeni, nationally acclaimed speaker, author, retreat master and teacher, is Rector of The Shrine of Our Lady of Pompeii and Associate Professor of Liturgy and Homiletics, Catholic Theological Union, Chicago.

Speaker: Maggie Kast

Maggie Kast's recently published memoir, The Crack Between the Worlds, describes in aching, measured tones, the loss of her three-year old daughter, her husband, and an adult son. Maggie earned a Master of Theological Studies (Word and Worship Concentration) from Catholic Theological Union.

She teaches and tours sacred dance nationally and internationally, exploring the arts as a spiritual path. Following a lifetime career in concert and liturgical dance, Maggie earned an M.F.A. in writing from Vermont College of Fine Arts. She has published essays in America, Image Journal, Contact Quarterly and Writer's Chronicle and fiction in The Sun, Nimrod International, Rosebud and others. She teaches Writing and Rhetoric part-time at Columbia College Chicago.
