Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem

Dedication of the Relic Altar of Blessed Bartolo Longo

With deep gratitude, we dedicate today the Relic Altar of Blessed Bartolo Longo. We are grateful to The Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem for the generous gift given to us for the completion of this beautiful tribute, honoring a Knight who lived out the motto of the order:
Deus lo vult – God wills it!

May Blessed Bartolo Longo be honored here. May he guide and direct, with God's grace, the work of the Knights and Dames, who continue to do what God wills for the flourishing of the Reign of God in Jerusalem, in Pompei, Italy and in the United States of America.

Sincerely in our Lady,
Father Richard Fragomeni, Rector

Preparation of the Gifts

O How Amiable
Ralph Vaughan William (1872-1958)

O how amiable are thy dwellings, thou Lord of hosts! My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord. My heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God. Yea, the sparrow hath found her a house and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young: even thy altars, O Lord of hosts, my King, and my God. Blessed are they that dwell in thy house. They will be always praising thee. The glorious majesty of the Lord our God be upon us; prosper thou the work of our hands upon us. O prosper thou our handiwork. O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home. (Psalm 84, 90)

Communion

Panis Angelicus
Casciolini

May the Bread of Angels become bread for mankind;
The Bread of Heaven puts all foreshadowings to an end;
Oh, thing miraculous! This body of God will nourish
the poor, the servile, and the humble.
You God, Three and One, we beseech;
That You visit us, As we worship You.
By Your ways, lead us where we are heading,
to the light that You inhabitest. Amen.

Closing Hymn

Let All Things Now Living
Ash Grove

verse 1. Let all things now living a song of thanksgiving to God the Creator triumphantly raise,
Who fashioned and made us, protected and stayed us,
by guiding us on to the end of our days.
God's banners are o'er us, pure light goes before us,
a pillar of fire shining forth in the night:
Till shadows have vanished and darkness is banished,
as forward we travel from light into Light.

verse 2. His law he enforces, the stars in their courses,
The sun in its orbit obediently shine;
The hills and the mountains, the rivers and fountains,
The depths of the ocean proclaim God divine.
We too should be voicing our love and rejoicing;
With glad adoration, a song let us raise:
Till all things now living unite in thanksgiving:
To God in the highest, hosanna and praise.
