

BE THE CONDUCTOR!
Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus"
DONATION ~ $50 PER ENTRY

Conducting Handel's masterpiece, the Hallelujah Chorus, is one of life's rare pleasures. Standing in front of an orchestra and chorus leading the resounding "King of kings, and Lord of lords" can send shivers down one's spine. Here is your opportunity to experience that very thrill! The Shrine of Our Lady of Pompeii is raffling off the opportunity to lead the assembled musicians at this year's 2018 Mary and Christmas concert, Saturday, December 8.

Included in this package is a commemorative baton, one conducting lesson with Maestro Paul French and your place on the conductor's podium at both the dress rehearsal and the concert. In addition, you will receive a framed photo of you in action. This opportunity is not to be missed!

Return ticket in enclosed envelope by November 27th.

Winner will be drawn Wednesday, November 28th and notified.
